

MNR massacre 6 in weekend road ambush

MAPUTO. — Bandits of the South African-backed MNR murdered six people in an ambush against a civilian vehicle on Mozambique's main north-south highway on Saturday afternoon, according to police sources contacted yesterday by AIM.

The ambush occurred in the area of Maluana, about 50 kilometres north of Maputo. Those killed were four men, a woman and a child.

● Funerals took place in Maputo's Lhanguene Cemetery on Saturday afternoon for 21 of the 22 people murdered by the MNR in an attack on a train on New Year's Eve. — Ziana-AIM-Pana.