

Mozambique-South Africa rail line cut by "bandits"
Maputo radio reported on 28th January that rail traffic between the Mozambican capital and South Africa had been interrupted since the morning of the previous day due to "bandit sabotage" at Pessenc. The bandits had killed seven people in the attack.