

'Terrorists' Kill 7, Wound 20 in Convoy Attack
MB141747 Maputo Domestic Service in Portuguese
1730 GMT 14 Apr 88

[Text] At least 7 people were murdered and another 20 wounded when armed bandits carried out an attack on civilian vehicles last Tuesday in Maluane, about 70 km from Maputo. This was disclosed today by a source from the general staff. Fifteen of the wounded were admitted at the Maputo Central Hospital in the afternoon of the same day, and one later died. The remaining victims continue to receive medical treatment and are out of danger.

Survivors in the attack, cited by a source from the general staff, said that the seven civilian vehicles were attacked by the terrorists at about 0900 when leaving Maputo for Gaza Province.