

Mozambique: three arrested on charges of terrorism The Mozambican defence and security forces have detained three Portuguese citizens who were "preparing to carry out acts of terrorism in our country", Maputo radio reported on 2nd May, adding that three more members of the same group were still at large. The group of "enemy agents" had infiltrated the country in February.

Radio Report (abr)