[Text] A total of 31 armed bandits have been killed and another 4 taken prisoner in Nhambia, Tete Province, recently, following a joint operation of the FPLM forces and Zimbabwean military units. This was disclosed to Radio Mozambique by a source from the FPLM General Staff.

The source said that the operation, which took place on 22 April, climaxed with the destruction of the so-called Matenge provincial base. A supply of war supplies, including two radio transmitters were also captured.
