

5 killed in MNR raid

LUSAKA — MNR bandits raided a Zambian border village last month, killing five people including three children, the Zambia Daily Mail reported yesterday.

The paper quoted the country's Defence Minister General Malimba Masheke as saying the MNR bandits burned huts and stole livestock in the raid on the eastern village of Wele near Chadiza on August 17. Two villagers were injured. — Ziana-Rtr.