[Text] The Mozambican Armed Forces in Inhambane Province destroyed an armed bandit camp at (Nhinjele), Inharrime district on 21 September. They killed two armed bandits and captured a considerable quantity of war materiel.

Radio Mozambique, quoting an Inhambane military source, reports that the camp was destroyed in the wake of an FPLM offensive against the criminals. The source added that our forces destroyed another armed bandits camp at (Maihon) on 19 September, killing four criminals in that operation. The source also disclosed that a number of other camps were destroyed near (Nhinjele).
