[Text] Our Chimoio correspondent reports Mozambique Armed Forces units freed 16,000 citizens from armed bandit captivity in Gondola district of Manica Province from January to September. This was reported in Gondola during the celebrations of 25 September, the day of the FPLM and the revolution. On the occasion, the district organs saluted Mozambique Armed Forces units stationed in Manica Province, particularly in Gondola, for the successive victories in the fight against the armed bandits.
