

Zambian troops kill 33 near border with Mozambique (Text) The Zambian armed forces have killed 33 armed bandits who attacked a number of Zambian villages near the border with Mozambique. AIM quoted Zambian Minister of State for Defence Alex Shapi as saying that the bandits were killed in the process of a hot pursuit operation mounted by the Zambian security forces. A quantity of war materiel was also captured. The bandits, who frequently carry out incursions into Zambia, Zimbabwe and Malawi in search of food, had attacked peasants in Chadiza, eastern Zambia. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1730 gmt 10 Nov 88)
