[Text] On 26 October, six armed bandits were killed and two others were taken prisoner by the Mozambican Armed Forces during a clash that took place in the Doa administrative post, Angola district, Tete Province. After the struggle, the Mozambican Armed Forces confiscated five light weapons, and several kinds of clips from the bandits.

Another report from Tete Province states that Zimbabwean forces killed eight armed bandits in (Nenene), Moatize district, while they were preparing to attack a column of vehicles on the Tete-Zobue road.
