[Text] AIM reports that at least 1 person was killed and 16 others were wounded when the train in which they were traveling was attacked by armed bandits in Movene region region, some 55 km from Maputo, yesterday afternoon. Citing survivors of the attack, AIM says that the train was traveling toward Maputo from Ressano Garcia on the South African border. They added that during the attack, the armed bandits used bazookas and light weapons, which were fired from both sides of the railroad.
