

Mozambique: Namibian arrested in Swaziland with arms for rebels (Text) A Namibian citizen has told the police in Manzini, Swaziland, that the arms which he was transporting were for the armed bandits in Mozambique. Paulus Marcos was arrested in the first week of April in Swaziland after police found in his possession various boxes containing military equipment. The Swazi police described the military equipment as highly sophisticated. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1400 gmt 29 Apr 89)
