

Mozambique: MNR "bandits" attack northern town (Excerpts) South Africa's MNR bandits attacked the town of Namapa in the northern Mozambican province of Nampula on Saturday [24th June]. The bandits kidnapped an unknown number of people in the attack. A source in the Portuguese company, Joao Ferreira dos Santos, told the Mozambique news agency, AIM, that a jeep and a truck belonging to the company had been destroyed and workers' houses looted. . . The bandits also cleared out the hospital's medical supplies and stole a large number of goods from a local shop. This was the fifth time that the town has been attacked by the bandits. (Radio Maputo in English for abroad 1800 gmt 29 Jun 89)
