

Mozambican officer jailed for abandoning "bandit" camp (Text) Captain Antonio Magaia of the Mozambique Armed Forces [FAM] has been sentenced to one year in prison by the Sofala provincial military court. He was accused of having ordered his battalion to abandon in August 1988 an armed bandit camp which had been stormed in the Maguaqua [phonetic] region of Cheringoma district. Antonio Magaia was Chief of General Staff of the Third Battalion belonging to FAM's fifth Brigade in Sofala province. (Radio Mozambique, Maputo, in Portuguese 1030 gmt 21 Jun 89)
