161 MNR bandits killed

MAPUTO. — The Mozambican armed forces killed 161 South African-backed MNR bandits in operations across the country in the first fortnight of June, according to a source in the FPLM general staff. Over the same period, 23 bandits were taken prisoner, and 12 surrendered to the authorities in order to take advantage of the amnesty offered to bandits who lay down their arms. — Ziana-ALM.
