

Mozambique: number of "terrorists" killed in first half of June rises to 200 (Text) More than 200 terrorists of South Africa's MNR gang have been killed in clashes with units of the Mozambican Armed Forces throughout Mozambique in the first two weeks of this month. A source in the general staff of the armed forces told today's Maputo daily 'Noticias' newspaper that 161 bandits were killed and 23 taken prisoner during the same period. The Mozambique news agency was told by another military source in Manjacaze town of Gaza province that in addition, 64 terrorists were killed in the province by 14th June. On the other hand, the terrorists murdered 53 people during attacks against communal villages and other civilian targets. At least 10 terrorist hideouts and camps were overrun in southern and central Mozambique, while the army freed more than 600 people from terrorist captivity. (Radio Maputo in English for abroad 1100 gmt 20 Jun 89)
