

Mozambique: MNR reports 94 government troops killed near Maputo (Text) The MNR claims to have killed 94 government soldiers in fighting near the capital, Maputo. In a statement issued by the MNR in Lisbon, it is claimed that the towns of Bela Vista, 41 km south of Maputo; Pessene, 35 km north-west of the capital; and Namaacha, near the South African border, were captured by its forces. In the same statement, the MNR claims it burned two locomotives and destroyed a section of the railway linking to South Africa via the frontier town of Ressano Garcia. None of the claims have been confirmed. (Johannesburg television in Afrikaans 0430 gmt 9 Jun 89)
