

Mozambique: state-owned buildings destroyed (Excerpt) About 300 buildings belonging to APIE [Administration of State Buildings] in Maputo, Inhambane, Sofala and Nampula Provinces have been destroyed by the armed bandits over the last five years. This information was disclosed during a meeting of APIE's national consultative council, which is under way in Nampula city. The information added that over the same period, 208 houses were abandoned by their occupants... (Radio Mozambique, Maputo, in Portuguese 1030 gmt 15 Dec 89)