

Seven killed in MNR attack

MAPUTO — Rebels of the Mozambique National Resistance movement (MNR) hacked at least seven people to death and seriously wounded another five on Friday night in attacks on two outlying suburbs of Maputo, the news agency Aim reported yesterday.

Albazine and Romao suburbs, about 15 kilometres from Maputo city centre, were raided by the rebels from 9 pm on Friday till 1 am on Saturday. An undetermined number of residents of the two suburbs were abducted. — Sapa-AFP.
