

18 die in rebel attack

14/9/92

MAPUTO. — Government radio reported on Saturday that an attack by anti-government rebels had killed 18 people in a southern town. Mozambique has launched a desperate appeal for all-out assistance to stave off the threat of massive famine facing at least a fifth of the population.