

Daily News

Aug. 23, '73
(fragment)

The Rand Daily Mail also reported from Lourenco Marques that an African security police chief who may have been responsible for civilian killings in Tete province has been killed in a grenade attack

It said the African, known as "Chico," and whom it described as an enormous and terrifying man, would have been a key witness in the pending military enquiry into the alleged killing of about 50 people in the tiny village of Chowala - Reuter