Safari fun in Mozambique

THE Portuguese Minister of Finance, Dr Cota Dias, Brazil's Mr Delfim Neto and France's Mr Valery Giscard D'estaing have accepted invitations from the Portuguese financier, Mr Antonio Champalimaud to take part in a game hunt in Mozambique.

The French and Brazilian Ministers will fly to Lourenco Marques from Nairobi after the International Monetary Fund meeting next month.

Mr Champalimaud is president of a group with large investments in Mozambique and Brazil and is contemplating the installation of a steel-works in the Zambezi Valley area of Mozambique. - Zana
