

Times

Sept. 3, '73

Frelimo accused of killing seven villagers

From Our Correspondent

Lisbon, Sept 2

A report from the Tete district of Mozambique says Frelimo guerrillas killed seven people and wounded eight others during an attack in which they razed the village of Soronhate.

A group of about 150 guerrillas launched the attack with mortars and automatic weapons while many members of the local defence militia were absent, the report said. They destroyed 250 straw huts leaving 300 families without shelter.