

Villagers Convicted for Assisting Portuguese

Two Zambians, said to have acted as guides for a squad of Portuguese soldiers in Zambia on a sabotage mission from Mozambique, were each sentenced to seven years' gaol with hard labour in Lusaka on March 24th. The men were Juzi Tembo and Sinoya Lungu. They claimed that they had been forced at gun-point to lead the soldiers on the raid. It was stated in court that the two men were seen leading a group of ten armed Portuguese soldiers across the Luangwa Valley into Zambia. (TS 25/3)
