

A Mozambique inquiry

From Mr Christopher Hollis

Sir, With all respect to Father Edwards (August 16) there is really no parallel between a request for a Papal inquiry into the Littlejohn affair or the Watergate scandal and that for an inquiry into the alleged Wiriyamu massacres.

There has been no suggestion that either the Littlejohn brothers or the plumbers of Watergate were ordained priests. On the other hand the charges about Wiriyamu were brought by Catholic missionaries. It is therefore not unreasonable that we should wish to know whether those charges were true or whether they were mistaken.

Yours, etc,

CHRISTOPHER HOLLIS,

Little Claveys, Mells,

Near Frome, Somerset.

August 16.
