

Mocker arrested

SM 26/10/86
A MARONDERA man found himself in court on Friday after his workmates took exception to comments he made concerning the death of Mozambican President, Cde Samora Machel.

Vincent Joseph, a fitter and turner at the Marondera Cold Storage Commission, admitted allegations that he made a mockery of the death of Cde Machel, before magistrate Miss Elizabeth Musarurwa.

He was arrested on Monday after he was seen celebrating the death of the Mozambican leader, and rejoicing, saying: "One black leader is gone, and plenty more will soon be eliminated."

Joseph was remanded in custody to November 7 for sentence.
