

Tanzanians

weep

DAR ES SALAAM. — Wailing women collapsed yesterday as tens of thousands of Tanzanians marched through the streets of Dar es Salaam in mourning for the late Mozambican President Samora Machel.

The mourners, dressed in black or with black arm bands, marched solemnly to an office of the ruling Chama Cha Mapinduzi party in a silence broken only by the women's wailing. — Ziana-Reuter.

Herald (Zim.) 29/10/86