

[11]

Mozambique: Chissano on "hopeful signs for peace" (Text) President Joaquim Chissano has said that Mozambique will achieve peace, but added that this process is taking time because government and people want real, safe and definitive peace. The Mozambican leader was speaking during an audience given to Manuel Marin, Vice-President of the European Commission, who ended his visit to Mozambique today. Chissano added that work is continuing to remove all obstacles, stressing that there are hopeful signs for peace. (Radio Mozambique, Maputo, in Portuguese 1030 gmt 7 Feb 90)