

Peace talks plan denied

H. 4-6-90

WASHINGTON.

SPOKESMEN for the South African-backed MNR bandits in Washington have told AIM that they know nothing of the latest position taken by the bandit leadership whereby the bandits accept direct dialogue with the Mozambican government in Malawi.

"Up until now we have no information about the negotiations," the bandits representative in the United States, Mr Julio Sefo, told AIM. — Ziana-Pana.