

Renamo attacked

Kampala — President Joaquim Chissano of Mozambique accused the Renamo rebels of stalling peace negotiations being held in Rome, insisting on adding items to an already-agreed agenda for more substantive talks, writes Todd Shields. IND. 2/15/91

Mr Chissano also said rebel attacks had forced his government to postpone free elections until at least next year.