

ARGUS

2/11/92

UN's ceasefire warning

MAPUTO (Mozambique). — Renewed fighting in Mozambique would cause the country to lose international help in rebuilding itself, the United Nations special representative said. Mr Aldo Ajello, sent to Mozambique to help implement a ceasefire signed October 4 to end the 16-year civil war, said he had reports of troop concentrations by the government and MNR rebels. — Sapa-AFP.