

Rebuilding can begin — Chissano

MAPUTO. — Mozambican President Joaquim Chissano said a peace pact with Renamo was holding and work could now begin on rebuilding the country.

Mr Chissano was speaking at his traditional New Year reception for senior diplomats.

Zimbabwean President Robert Mugabe will receive the Holy Cross Peace prize in Italy tomorrow for his role in bringing peace to Mozambique.

● A Maputo daily, Mediafax, reported yesterday that peace and the opening up of the roads had brought an influx of white South African tourists. — Sapa

CT. 6/1/93