

Weekend Argus
3-417193

Uniform demand

Argus Africa News Service

MAPUTO. — Renamo will not send its troops to United Nations assembly areas before they are issued with new uniforms, a spokesman said.

So far, the UN peace operation in Mozambique has opened six out of a planned 49 assembly points, three for the government and three for Renamo. No troops have yet moved in.

Fighters are to be disarmed and registered at the assembly points and some recruited into a new unified army.