

Renamo refuses to attend talks

MAPUTO. — The Mozambican government yesterday suspended multi-party talks on electoral law when the Renamo opposition refused to attend a meeting of heads of delegations.

The closed-door meeting was to have discussed a compromise on the composition of the National Elections Commission, which has deadlocked the talks.

Renamo had demanded a public plenary session instead, apparently annoyed that the government proposal had been leaked and published in the state-owned paper Noticias. — Sapa-AFP
