

Dhlakama says Renamo may start demobilizing troops on 30th November

*Radio Mozambique, Maputo, in Portuguese 0700 gmt
14 Oct 93*

Afonso Dhlakama, Mozambique National Resistance [MNR - Renamo] leader, has said that his organization may start confining and demobilizing its forces on 30th November if the UN police contingent has already arrived in Mozambique.

Afonso Dhlakama added that his organization could also start allowing unarmed opposition parties to come to Renamo-controlled areas as of that date, as long as the government had begun disbanding its militia forces by then.