

Renamo leader comes up short

MAPUTO. — Renamo leader Mr Afonso Dhla-kama, a candidate in Mozambique's elections next month, has still not collected the 10 000 signatures he needs to contest the poll.

The UN-backed elections follow the truce between the government and rebels a year ago.

The former rebel leader needs to find 115 signatures by the weekend. — Sapa-AFP

CT 7/9/94