[Text] A South African, Coal, Oil, and Gas Corporation [Sasol] delegation returned to its country this afternoon after holding talks with the Ministry of Mineral Resources.

The Sasol delegation arrived this morning to discuss with the Mozambican authorities the feasibility of their participation in the production of natural gas, oil, and other mineral resources. National Director of Hydrocarbons Mario Marques said the delegation showed its interest in the project and is expected to send groups of experts in the coming months to discuss the issue in details. The delegation, led by Sasol Executive Director (Paul Kruger), was received by Prime Minister Mario Machungo
