[Text] The People's Assembly chairman said in Maputo yesterday that the sole source of terrorism and murder of defenseless people in southern Africa is the Pretoria government.

Marcelino dos Santos, speaking at a dinner in honor of British Labour Party leader Neil Kinnock, added that the South African regime prevents the development and establishment of peace in the region.

The Mozambican official described Kinnock's visit to Mozambique and area countries as contributing to Europe's better understanding of the dramatic situation in southern Africa.

Neil Kinnock arrived in Maputo yesterday as part of his tour of several Frontline States. He is expected to visit a number of districts in Maputo Province today.
