

British aid to Mozambique On Wednesday the Mozambican Red Cross representative in Nacala took delivery of four lorries from Britain, aid for those affected by natural disasters. The lorries were handed over by a British Embassy official who said that further aid would soon be sent to Mozambique. He added that the British Government had already donated 50,000 pounds sterling for the purchase of maize and beans. (Maputo in Portuguese 0700 gmt 26 Aug 82)
