

British aid to Mozambique C. 24/2/8

HARARE — The British Overseas Development Administration is to provide two emergency aid grants of more than $1.8 million to voluntary agencies in Mozambique to avert a major famine disaster in that country.

According to a statement released here yesterday by the British High Commission, the international relief agency Care will receive $1.25 million and Oxfam will get $595 000. — Ziana.
