THE third company of Mozambican soldiers to be trained by British Military Advisory and Training Team instructors will complete training at a passing out parade at Border Camp, Nyanga, on Friday.

The parade will be reviewed by the Mozambican secretary of state and director-general for recruitment and training, Lieutenant-General Joaquim Joao Munhepe.

With the completion of this course, more than 800 members of the Mozambican army would have attended the joint BMATT-Zimbabwe National Army training in Nyanga.
