[Text] The leader of the British opposition Labor Party, Neil Kinnock, is today ending his visit to Mozambique with a tour of parts of the center of the country. Mr Kinnock is expected to tour Beira and areas nearby in central Sofala and Manica provinces.

18/7/88

Yesterday, Mr Kinnock had a meeting in Maputo with President Joaquim Chissano. An official source said the discussions were very cordial and frank. President Chissano and Mr Kinnock, among other issues, discussed the present developments in southern Africa. They also exchanged views at the level of party. President Chissano heads Mozambique's ruling Frelimo party.

Earlier, Mr Kinnock visited part of the Limpopo railway line currently being rehabilitated with the help of the British government.
