

MOZAMBIQUE

UK balance of payments donation Britain has donated £10m in support of Mozambique's balance of payments. Documents to formalise the donation were signed in Maputo on 9th August. The money is the final part of a total of £15m of balance of payments support, pledged last September when the former British Foreign Secretary, Sir Geoffrey Howe, visited Mozambique. It will be used to buy essential equipment and materials for the Mozambican Ministries of Health and of Transport. Discussions are currently under way for a further £10m donation to Mozambique, announced by the British Prime Minister, Mrs Thatcher, in March.
