

H: UK, Maputo pact

1 MAY 1987

LUANDA.

visit to London.

A BRITISH military delegation is due shortly in Mozambique to help the African state to combat South African - backed Mozambican National Resistance (MNR) bandits.

The Mozambican news agency Aim reports that the agreement was reached during President Joaquim Chissano's official Cde Chissano told a news conference that Britain was ready to continue developing its military co-operation with Mozambique.

Britain is one of the few West European countries which co-operates militarily with Mozambique. — Ziana-Tanjug.