

MOZAMBIQUE

194 : British food aid, Africa (AFP), Apr. 18, '80

London, April 17 - Britain is providing 15.000 tonnes of soft wheat as food aid to Mozambique to help meet a serious shortage caused by last year's poor harvests, it was announced here. The wheat shipment is due to reach Maputo, Mozambique's capital, in mid-May and will be for local sale only. It is part of Britain's national action under the European Economic Community's commitment to the food aid convention.