

Princess Anne in Mozambique The Princess, on a visit as President of the Save the Children Fund was received on 24th November by Graca Machel, wife of the Mozambican President, Maputo radio reported.

(Text) President Samora Machel received in Maputo early this evening Princess Anne of Great Britain, who is visiting Mozambique. This afternoon, Princess Anne visited the British Petroleum enterprise in Matola, the most important British enterprise operating in Mozambique. She also visited the workshops of the Maputo urban public transport, where Leyland buses are repaired. Those buses were purchased by Mozambique from Great Britain. We recall that this morning Princess Anne met Pascoal Mocumbi, the Health Minister, and visited the Maputo central hospital and Maputo harbour. (Maputo home service in Portuguese 1900 gmt 25 Nov 85)
