

British Labour Party leader leaves Mozambique for Zimbabwe (ME/0206 ii) Neil Ninnock ended his visit to Mozambique on 17th July and left for Mutare in Zimbabwe, Maputo radio reported. Johannesburg radio on the 18th gave a brief factual account of the incident in Mutare where the Labour leader and his wife were held for an hour at gunpoint by Zimbabwean soldiers. The radio said that the incident had been characterised by "strong language" between Kinnock and a Zimbabwean corporal. ME/0207, ii, 17-7-88