

UK to increase training for Mozambican military in Zimbabwe The British High Commission in Zimbabwe has said that the number of Mozambican officers receiving training at Inyanga will be doubled to 200 a year, according to Harare radio on 22nd January. This has been agreed between Britain, Mozambique and Zimbabwe. The officers will be trained by British military personnel.

1987