

BURY. — Zimbabwe's military force is to be mobilised at the Mozambi-
National Resist-Group which the Minister Mr Ro-Mugabe hinted receiving supplies
South Africa.

In another week-development, Mr Mu-pledged his government's "political diplom-support for the liberation movement in South Africa.

However, Mr Mugabe's speech at the Liberation Day celebrations on support for South Africa's nationalist movements did not hint of any deviation from previous pledges that Zimba-babwe would not become a training pad for ANC PAC guerrillas.

Since his government's formation two months ago Mr Mugabe has consistently promised political diplomatic support for the South African liberation groups but was balked at any form of military backing.

He said the "counter revolutionary" forces were an element on Zimbabwe soil and his government was duty bound to get rid of them.

"Clearing them does not mean just whistling and getting them away.
We can whistle in a much more thunderous and dangerous manner," he added.

Asked if the South Africans were supplying the rebels which he called the Andrea or MNR group, Mr Mugabe said:
"They are still receiving supplies. We are not giving them those supplies and one wonders who is flying supplies to them."

Mr Mugabe said that he had raised with the South African representative in Salisbury a matter concerning certain counter revolutionary forces from near Bindura.
