

Economic and military co-operation between Mozambique and Zimbabwe was the main theme of a communique released in Harare on 19th June on the conclusion of President Machel's visit to Zimbabwe, Maputo radio reported. The two countries, while expressing their satisfaction with progress made by the Southern African Development Co-ordination Conference (SADCC) in the struggle for the economic independence of its members, agreed to make further efforts for the implementation of SADCC projects and also stressed the importance of rehabilitating the Limpopo railway line linking southern Zimbabwe with the port of Maputo.
